

Carefree rentals

This supplementary coverage can be taken out in addition to the Home & Everyday module. It affords you additional protection in your capacity as a landlord. Disputes often arise in property management between landlords and their tenants. If a lawsuit ensues, you need a strong partner at your side to advise you and defend your rights. With supplementary Landlord coverage, you don't have to worry.

What is insured?

Which cases are insured?

Legal disputes arising in connection with rental and lease agreements where you are the landlord or lessor

Example

My tenant stopped paying the rent, so I canceled the rental agreement. Now he says he can't find alternative accommodation and won't move out when the lease expires.
